Ngā mihi o te tau hou whanau!

Yes, Happy New Year! Matariki has made an appearance and now is the time to whakanui/celebrate, whakamahara/remember those who have passed and whakareri/prepare for the coming year!

Pipiri/June was another busy month for NHEWOP, who would like to extend a special thank you to, Dr Jessica Hutchins, from Te Waka Kai Ora for sharing her matauranga around organics. The Black Creek BBQ crew who delivered a delicious BBQ fundraiser, the volunteers from Massey University and Conservation NZ for their help with our Maara Mokomoko/Lizard Garden and the Matariki Planting with Newlands Schools and also the Newlands College Drama Class, who presented an Oscar worthy performance again this year!

Hangi were popular again with St Catherines Colleges 600 hangi meals, thanks to our hangi crew led by Paul Samson, and another successful Rāranga Wānanga tutored by the talented Sani Scott with an impromptu weaving lesson for the Chefs of Logan Brown Restaurant. Joe McLeods Maara kai presentation to Logan Brown and the NZ Chefs Association was enjoyed by all and the Matariki Hakari for Maara tunu was an indoor hangi shared with our whanau.

Tonight, we will open our gates to let our community enjoy the view of the Matariki fireworks display in Wellington. The Johnsonville Rugby Club is also preparing a hangi for Sunday and NHEWOP is setting up for our Kaumatuā day apopo/tomorrow. Our community is also invited to join us on Sunday 30 June, 5.30am to welcome and view Matariki then share parakuihi/breakfast with us all.

What is happening in Hōngongoi/July!
